

Break the Huddle and Run the Play

James 2:14-26

12 time he says "Action" or "Works"

Example: Football Huddle

The huddle is to plan your next action, a "Play to Run", the goal being to advance the ball

Football players don't fall asleep in the huddle, they don't walk out.

This does happen in Church.

Every player in a huddle is attentive to their given assignment.

They get in formation and run the play.

The huddle is like coming to church.

We huddle to get new challenges and direction

Run the "Forgiveness Play"

Forgive those who have hurt you because you have hurt people too and God forgave you.

Sometimes we ignore direct God given direction,

We ignore

We stay huddled

"You have to break the huddle and run the play"

"You know the play, you heard the need, run the play."

Not breaking the huddle isn't good enough. Move from faith.

Not faith or works

Faith that works

Why break the Huddle?

#1 The team doesn't progress in the huddle.

#2 You're on the clock

#3 Where the play came from

#4 He will block for you

Looking back you can rejoice, dance, and shout.

Give God the credit
